

2017 WPEA Scholarship Program

Preference is given to candidates pursuing an initial degree or certificate at an accredited university, community college, vocational/technical college, or other accredited institution of higher education.

1. PERSONAL ESSAY —The personal essay will help the scholarship committee better understand your need for the scholarship.

Submit a typewritten 450 to 500 word single-spaced essay, which includes the following information:

- Your academic goals
- Your career goals
- How these goals will allow you to contribute to your community or society
- Describe how your qualifications satisfy the scholarship criteria

2. LABOR MOVEMENT/UNION ESSAY —The labor movement/union essay will help the committee better assess your understanding of the labor movement in this country, and its impacts on the economic and social growth and prosperity of workers in America.

Submit a 450 to 500 word single-spaced essay, addressing the following based on your experience:

- If you currently or have in the past belonged to an organized labor union, describe to the committee how the labor movement and union membership has benefitted you and/or your family personally, professionally, socially, and/or globally.

OR

- If you have never belonged to an organized labor union, discuss the positive impact the labor movement and membership in organized labor unions has on workers, families, communities, and society.

3. REFERENCE LETTER — Please include one letter of reference (do not submit more than one letter). Possible authors include a teacher, counselor, advisor, supervisor, co-worker, or employer; someone who knows of your goals, potential, work ethic, and motivation.

NOTE: In order to give fair weight to all essays, the scholarship committee will not consider any portion of an essay exceeding the allotted length.
