PREAMBLE

This Agreement is entered into by the Washington State Senate, referred to as the “Employer,” and the Washington Public Employees Association, referred to as the “Union.” It is the intent of the parties to establish employment relations based on mutual respect, provide fair treatment to all employees, promote efficient and cost-effective service delivery to the customers and residents of the State of Washington, recognize the value of employees and the work they perform, specify wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment, and provide methods for prompt resolution of differences.

The Legislature recognizes the unique role that legislative staff play in the function of the Legislature. Therefore, even though legislative staff are exempt from Chapter 41.06 RCW (State Civil Service), they have been granted collective bargaining rights under Chapter 44.90 RCW.

The Preamble is not subject to the grievance procedure in Article 13, Grievance Procedure.

ARTICLE 1 - UNION RECOGNITION

The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining representative for all employees in the bargaining unit consisting of all Legislative Assistants and Supervisory Executive Assistants working for the Senate Democratic Caucus, as defined by the Public Employment Relations Commission certification decisions, Washington State Legislature, Senate, Decision 13910-A (LECB, 2024) and Washington State Legislature, Senate, Decision 13959 (LECB, 2024).

ARTICLE 2 – DUES DEDUCTION & STATUS REPORTS

A. Dues deduction and revocations will be processed in accordance with RCW 44.90.100 and the following:

1. Union Dues

When the Union provides written notice of an employee's authorization for deduction of membership dues to the Employer, the Union has the right to have deducted from the employee's salary an amount equal to the fees or dues required to be a member of the Union. The Employer will provide payments for all said deductions to the Union at the Union's official headquarters each pay period.

2. Notification to Employees

The Employer will inform new, transferred, promoted, or demoted employees prior to appointment into positions included in the bargaining unit(s) of the Union's exclusive recognition. The Union will be notified of all new bargaining unit hires by courtesy copy of the new employee's hire letter, including the employee's email address.

The Employer agrees to deduct the membership dues or fees from the salary of employees within thirty (30) days of receipt of the written notice from the Union of an employee's authorization to the Accounting Office.

3. Dues Cancellation

An employee may cancel the payroll deduction of dues by written notice to the Union and in accordance with the terms and conditions of their signed membership card. Effort will be made to make the cancellation effective on the first payroll and not later than the second payroll after the Employer receives notice from the Union that the terms of the employee's signed membership card regarding dues deduction cancellation have been met.

B. Status Reports

1. No later than the tenth and twenty-fifth of each month, the Employer will provide the Union a report in an electronic format of the following data, if maintained by the Employer, for employees in the bargaining unit and those who enter or leave the bargaining unit or who start or stop deductions:

ARTICLE 3 – UNION RIGHTS AND ACTIVITIES

3.1 Union Representatives

A. Notification and Recognition

1. The Union will provide the Employer with a written list of Union Representatives and Shop Stewards. The Union will maintain the list.

2. The Employer will recognize any Union Representative or Shop Steward on the list. The Employer will not recognize an employee as a Union Representative or Shop Steward if their name does not appear on the list.
3. The Union will provide written notice to the Employer of any changes within thirty (30) calendar days of the changes.
4. Shop Stewards must provide notice to their supervisor to prepare for and/or attend any meeting during their work hours. All notices must include the approximate amount of time the Shop Steward expects the activity to take. Shop Stewards will be granted reasonable paid time, as determined by the employer, during their normal working hours to investigate and process grievances. If the amount of time a Shop Steward spends performing representational activities is unduly affecting their ability to accomplish assigned duties, the Employer will not continue to release the employee and the Union will be notified.

In addition, Shop Stewards will be granted reasonable paid time, as determined by the employer, during their normal working hours to prepare for and attend meetings for representational activities including investigatory interviews and pre-disciplinary meetings; informal grievance resolution meetings, grievance meetings, alternative dispute resolution sessions, mediation sessions, or any meeting at which both parties will be present with the intent to present or resolve a grievance held during their work time; and New Employee Orientations and associated meetings.

5. Time spent preparing for, traveling to and from, and attending meetings during the Shop Steward's non-work hours will not be considered as time worked.
6. Union Representatives and Shop Stewards may not use state vehicles to travel to and from a work site in order to perform representation activities, unless authorized by the Employer.

B. Access

1. Union Representatives and Shop Stewards may have access to the Employer's offices or facilities in accordance with Employer policy to carry out representational activities.
2. Union Representatives will notify Human Resources prior to their arrival and will not interrupt the normal operations of the Employer.

3.2 Use of State Facilities, Resources and Equipment

A. Meeting Space and Facilities

The Employer's offices and facilities may be used by the Union to hold meetings necessary to carry out representational activities, subject to the Employer's policy, availability of the space and with prior authorization of the Employer.

B. Supplies and Equipment

The Union and employees covered by this Agreement will not use state-purchased supplies or equipment to conduct union business or representational activities. This does not preclude the use of the telephone, or similar devices that may be used for persons with disabilities, for representational activities if there is no cost to the Employer, the call is brief in duration and it does not disrupt or distract from Employer business.

C. Electronic Communications

The Union and employees covered by this Agreement will not use state-owned or operated electronic communications to communicate with one another for Union or non-work purposes, except as provided in this agreement. Employees may use state operated e-mail to request union representation. Union Representatives and Shop Stewards may use state owned/operated equipment to communicate with the affected employees and/or the Employer for the exclusive purpose of administration of this Agreement. Such use will:

2. Be brief in duration and frequency;
3. Not interfere with the performance of their official duties;
4. Not distract from the conduct of state business;
5. Not disrupt other state employees and not obligate other employees to make a personal use of state resources;
6. Not compromise the security or integrity of state information or software; and
7. Not include general communication and/or solicitation with employees.

The Union and its Union Representatives/Shop Stewards will not use the above referenced state equipment for union organizing, internal union business, advocating for or against the Union in an election or any other purpose prohibited by the Legislative Ethics Board. Communication that occurs over state-owned equipment is the property of the Employer and may be subject to public disclosure.

3.3 Information Requests

- A. The Employer agrees to provide the Union, upon written request, access to materials and information necessary for the Union to fulfill its statutory responsibility to administer this Agreement. All union information requests will be clearly labeled as such and will be sent to the Human Resources Office with a copy to the Office of State Legislative Labor Relations.
- B. The Employer will acknowledge receipt of the information request and will provide the Union with a date by which the information is anticipated to be provided.
- C. When the Union submits a request for information that the Employer believes is unclear or unreasonable, or which requires the creation or compilation of a report, the Employer will contact the Union staff representative and the parties will discuss the relevance, necessity and costs associated with the request and the amount the Union will pay for receipt of the information.

3.4 Employer Policies

The Employer will provide to the Union any new human resources related policies affecting represented employees or updates to existing human resource related policies affecting represented employees during the term of the Agreement.

3.5 Distribution of Material

An employee will have access to their work site for the purpose of distributing information to other bargaining unit employees provided:

- A. The employee is off-duty;

- E. Distribution will not occur more than twice per month, unless agreed to in advance by the Employer.
- F. All material will be consistent with Legislative Ethics Board rulings and Senate ethics rules and not request legislative employees to engage in prohibited activities.

3.6 Access To New Employee Orientation

Within ninety (90) days of a new employee's start date in a Union bargaining unit position, the Employer will provide access to the employee during the employee's regular work hours to present information about the Union. This access will be provided on the newly-hired employee's work time, at the employee's regular worksite, or at a location mutually agreed to by the Employer and the Union and will be for no less than thirty (30) minutes. Union meetings with new employees will include only the new bargaining unit employees, Shop Stewards and Union Representatives unless mutually agreed otherwise. The Shop Steward will also remain in paid status when the orientation is done in a group setting. A Shop Steward providing Union orientation in individual meetings will be in non-work status. Management employees will remain strictly neutral regarding attendance at the meetings and their content. No employee will be required to attend the meetings or presentations given by the Union.

ARTICLE 4 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Except as modified by this Agreement, the Employer retains all rights of management, which, in addition to all powers, duties and rights established by constitutional provision or statute, will include but not be limited to, the right to:

There may be mandated or emergency conditions that are outside of the Employer's control requiring immediate implementation, in which case the Employer will notify the Union as soon as possible.

8.1 Negotiations

- A. The parties will agree to the location and time for the discussions and/or negotiations. Nothing in this section should be construed as limiting the Employer's right to determine who shall provide legal representation, as per RCW 43.10.045.

ARTICLE 10 – LABOR-MANAGEMENT COMMUNICATION COMMITTEE

- A. The Employer and the Union support the goal of a constructive, respectful and cooperative relationship. To promote and foster such a relationship, the parties agree to establish a structure of joint union-management communication committees, for the sharing of information and concerns and discussing possible resolution(s) in a collaborative manner.
- B. The committee will be composed of up to three (3) representatives selected by the Union, in addition to paid Union staff representatives, and up to three (3) Employer representatives, in addition to a representative from the Office of State Legislative Labor Relations. If agreed to by the parties, additional representatives may be added. Committee meetings will be conducted up to four (4) times per year, except that meetings will not be scheduled during a legislative session or during committee assembly days, unless agreed otherwise or there are no agenda items identified.
- C. Participation and Process
 - i. The Union will provide the Employer with the names of its committee members one (1) work week in advance of the date of the meeting in order to facilitate the release of employees.

 - iv. Travel. The Employer will approve granted time/comp time, annual leave, or leave without pay for Union team members to travel to and from committee meetings. The Union is responsible for paying the travel costs and per diem expenses of employee representatives. In lieu of traveling, employees may request to participate via teleconference and/or video conference.

- v. Each party will provide the other with any topics for discussion at least ten (10) calendar days prior to the meeting. Suggested topics may include, but are not limited to, administration of this Agreement, training materials, changes to law, legislative updates and/or organizational change. Additional agenda items may be added with mutual agreement.
- vi. If topics discussed result in follow-up by either party, communications will be provided by the responsible party.

D. Scope of Authority

Meetings will be conducted in accordance with WAC 296-800-13020. Committee recommendations will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Senate for review and action, as necessary. The Secretary of the Senate or designee will report follow-up action/information to the Safety Committee.

11.3 Ergonomic Assessments

Such employee requests should be made in writing. The Employer will ensure that an ergonomic assessment of the employee's workstation is scheduled, or that the employee is provided with the materials and support to conduct a self-assessment of their workstation which will be reviewed by a trained person, within thirty (30) business days from the receipt of the request for assessment, or as soon as practicable. 11.6 COVID-19 and Other Contagious Conditions

- A. Employees are encouraged to use sick leave when sick. Employees will contribute to a healthy workplace, including not knowingly exposing members of the legislative community and the public to contagious conditions that could jeopardize the health of others. When an employee self-reports that they have a contagious health condition, upon determination and approval by the Employer that the employee is able to work at home or an approved alternative location and if the employee requests to work at home or an alternative location, the employee may be assigned to work from home or the alternative work location; otherwise, the Employer may require the employee to use leave.

When disciplining an employee, the Employer will make a reasonable effort to protect the privacy of the employee and any witnesses.

Disciplinary actions are subject to the grievance procedure. Oral and written reprimands may only be processed through Step 2.

12.2 Investigations

The Employer has the authority to determine the method of conducting investigations. Both parties agree that timely resolution of investigations of alleged employee misconduct is critical to maintaining a positive and productive work environment. Disciplinary investigations will be processed in a timely manner. - F. Improvement measures such as performance improvement plans, coaching, counseling, evaluations, training, directives, and feedback, or other non-disciplinary communications between the Employer and the employee.
- G. Separations from employment. All employment with the Senate is at-will.

12.6 Eligibility for Senate Transition Pool List and Delayed Separation Program

To assist employees who may be subject to a separation transition to other employment, the parties agree to create a Transition Pool List and Delayed Separation Program. Eligibility to participate is based on the following criteria:

- A. The employee has held an annual (permanent) House or Senate position for 2-years or longer, at least 1-year of which was in a Senate position, or has held a position for at least 3 sessions, at least 2 of which were in the Senate
- B. The employee has been notified they will be separated;
- C. The separation is not the result of a budget-driven layoff or furlough;
- D. The separation is not the result of the employee having engaged in partisan activities that are incompatible with the employee's job duties or position;
- E. The separation will occur in less than 90-days from the employee's receipt of notice, for example, in a case where a legislative member decides not to file for reelection. Under this circumstance, employees may still request to be placed on the Transition Pool List for consideration for other positions while they continue in their current position; and
- F. The employee has not been subject to disciplinary action within the 12-months preceding notice of the separation.

12.7 Senate Transition Pool List and Delayed Separation Program

Employees who meet the eligibility criteria in Article 12.6 may request their name be placed on the Transition Pool List and the Delayed Separation Program. Under special circumstances, and with approval of the Union, the Employer may allow employees who do not meet one of the above criteria to be placed in the Transition pool list and delayed separation program. Placement in the Delayed Separation Program affords the employee the following benefits effective the date of the separation:

- A. Five (5) days of paid administrative leave;
- B. The use of up to two-hundred and eighty (280) hours of accrued annual leave or sick leave if they provide a doctor's note verifying their mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition;
- C. The use of up to five (5) days of accrued granted/compensatory leave;
- D. The use of accrued personal holidays, until exhausted or expired;
- E. Up to five (5) days of leave-without-pay; and
- F. Health care benefits through the month following the employee's last day of the above listed leave benefits, as long as at least one paid day of leave (8-hours) is used in the last month, per PEBB rules (WAC 182-12-131). Otherwise, the use of the listed leave benefits may be in any order, at the discretion of the employee.

In addition, upon notice of separation, employees may be offered a temporary position as a session aide or similar position for the upcoming legislative session. The temporary position will maintain the employees' salary and benefits they had in their permanent position. If the employee chooses to accept a session position, at the end of the session should the employee be unsuccessful in securing a permanent position, they will be separated from employment.

Transition Pool List. Prior to or during the legislative session, the Employer will consider employees who have requested placement on the Transition Pool List, all of whom must have the skills and abilities to perform the duties of a position being filled. All employees on the list are required to sign a reference waiver provided by the Employer allowing the Employer to provide information on the employee's job performance to a hiring supervisor.

Employees will be removed from the Delayed Separation Program and Transition Pool List upon appointment to a permanent position, acceptance of a position with another employer, or after sixty (60) days, whichever occurs first.

12.8 Separation of Employees Not Eligible for Senate Transition Pool

Employees who have not been employed long enough to meet the eligibility criteria in Article 12.6.A, above, but otherwise meet the eligibility requirements, will be provided eleven (11) working days written notice of the effective date of separation. However, if the Employer fails to provide eleven (11) working days' notice, the separation will stand, and the employee will be entitled to payment of salary up to eleven (11) working days.

12.9 Conflict Resolution

Meeting. Employees who have identified a conflict, including communication challenges, with their supervisor/Senator are encouraged to reach out as early as possible, ideally before they are concerned the conflict may lead to a separation, to request an opportunity to meet with a conflict resolution specialist identified by Human Resources. The meeting will attempt to resolve the conflict at the lowest level possible, and may be initiated by Administration, Human Resources, the employee, or the supervisor/Senator. This meeting is not disciplinary and would not prohibit an employee from participating in the transition pool.

12.10 Consideration of Separation

Depending on the nature and severity of the concerns, employees under consideration for separation due to performance issues may receive feedback regarding the concerns, with an opportunity to improve any deficiencies, prior to being placed on the transition pool list or separated.

ARTICLE 13 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The Union and the Employer agree that it is in the best interest of all parties to resolve disputes at the earliest opportunity and at the lowest level. The Union and the Employer encourage problem resolution between employees and management and are committed to assisting in resolution of disputes as soon as possible. In the event a dispute is not resolved in an informal manner, this Article provides a formal process for problem resolution.

13.1 Scope and Representation

- A. A grievance is an allegation by an employee or group of employees that there has been a violation of the terms of this Agreement, which occurred during the term of this Agreement. The term “grievant” as used in this Article includes the term “grievants.”
- B. Grievances may be filed by the Union on behalf of an employee or on behalf of a group of employees. If the Union does so, it will set forth the name of the employee or names of the group of employees.
- C. When, in the judgment of either party, face-to-face grievance meetings are not feasible, grievance meetings may take place via telephone or virtual means.
- D. If, at any step of the grievance procedure, the Union decides to withdraw the grievance, the Union must notify the grievant(s) and the Office of State Legislative Labor Relations.

13.2 Filing a Grievance

- A. The Union Representative must provide a written grievance form to the Senate's Human Resources Officer, as the Step 1 Official, and provide a copy of the grievance form to the Office of State Legislative Labor Relations.
- B. The grievance form shall be signed by the Union Representative, and include the following information or it will not be processed:
 - 1. The date of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance or the date the grievant knew or could reasonably have known of the occurrence;
 - 2. The nature of the grievance;
 - 3. The facts upon which it is based;
 - 4. The specific Article and Section of the Agreement violated;
 - 5. The specific remedy requested;
 - 6. The steps taken to informally resolve the grievance; and
 - 7. The name of the grievant(s) and the name and signature of the union representative.

C. Modifications

No newly alleged violations may be made after the initial written grievance is filed, except by written mutual agreement.

D. Resolution

If the Employer provides the requested remedy or a mutually agreed-upon alternative, the grievance will be considered resolved and may not be moved to the next step.

E. Pay

Union representatives may use work time for the investigation and processing of grievances in accordance with Article 3, Section 1, Union Rights and Activities.

Grievants will not be paid for informal dispute resolution meetings, grievance meetings, and alternative dispute resolution sessions held during their off-duty time.

F. Group Grievances

No more than five (5) grievants will be permitted to attend a single grievance meeting.

G. Consolidation

By mutual agreement, either the Employer or the Union may consolidate grievances arising out of the same set of facts.

H. Bypass

Any of the steps in this procedure may be bypassed with mutual written consent of the parties involved at the time the bypass is sought.

I. Discipline

Disciplinary grievances will be initiated at the level at which the disputed action was taken.

J. Grievance Files

Written grievances and responses will be maintained separately from the personnel files of the employees.

K. Alternative Resolution Methods

Any time during the grievance process, by mutual consent, the parties may use alternative methods to resolve the dispute. If the parties agree to use alternative methods, the time frames in this Article are suspended. If the selected alternative method does not result in a resolution, the Union may return to the grievance process and the time frames resume. The cost of alternative resolution methods, if any, will be shared equally by the parties.

13.3 Grievance Processing:

Step 1. Chief Human Resource Officer. Within fourteen (14) calendar days after when the Union or individual involved knew or should reasonably have known of the potential grievance or alleged violation, the Union shall file a grievance with the Chief Human Resource Officer by providing a written grievance to the Senate's Human Resources Officer (add email address) with a copy to the Office of State Legislative Labor Relations (add email address). The grievance is not considered filed until it has been provided to the Senate's Human Resources Office, Secretary of the Senate, and the Office of State Legislative Labor Relations.

The Senate's Human Resources Officer, or designee, shall work in consultation with the grievant's supervisor to attempt to adjust the matter and respond, in writing, to the Union with a copy to the Office of State Legislative Labor Relations within ten (10) calendar days after the grievance is filed.

Any resolution reached at Step 1 of the grievance procedure shall be binding only for the particular grievance and shall not be considered precedent setting.

Step 2. Secretary of the Senate. If the grievance is not resolved at Step 1, the Union may move to the next step by filing it with the Secretary of the Senate within fourteen (14) days of the Union's receipt of the Step 1 decision. The Union will also send a copy of the filing to the Office of State Legislative Labor Relations.

Within twenty one (21) calendar days of receipt of the Step 2 request, the Secretary of the Senate or designee shall meet with the Union Representative and grievant and will respond, in writing, to the Union with a copy to the Office of State Legislative Labor Relations within twenty one (21) calendar days of the grievance meeting.

Any resolution reached at Step 2 of the grievance procedure shall be binding only for the particular grievance and shall not be considered precedent setting.

Step 3. Mediation. In the event the grievance is not resolved at the prior steps and the grievance was not filed over removal of a telework agreement, as specified in Article 12, Discipline, either party may initiate mediation within fourteen (14) calendar days after the Step 2 response by requesting a mediator be assigned by the Public Employment Relations Commission. Mediation shall be a confidential process. If a resolution is reached during mediation, it shall be in writing and binding on the parties and non-precedent setting. Any costs associated with mediation shall be equally borne by the parties.

Step 4. Arbitration Panel. If the grievance is not settled at Step 3, the Union may, within thirty (30) calendar days after completion of Step 3, submit a written request for arbitration. The request to arbitrate the dispute must be filed with the American Arbitration Association (AAA) within thirty (30) days of the completion of Step 3, with a copy to the Employer and the Office of State Legislative Labor Relations.

1. Selecting an Arbitrator (Panel Chairperson)

The parties will select an arbitrator to serve as a neutral chairperson to the arbitration panel by mutual agreement or by alternately striking names supplied by the AAA, and will follow the Labor Arbitration Rules of the AAA unless they agree otherwise in writing.

2. Selecting the Panel. The remainder of the panel will be appointed by the parties. The Union will appoint one panel member; the Employer will appoint one panel member. Appointed panel members represent the interests of the party that appointed them and may provide expertise related to the Legislature's unique work environment, however, both parties should appoint panel members who can participate in the case without undue conflicts of interest. For example, appointed panel members may not be witnesses to the case, the grievant(s), or, in cases involving discipline, the decision-making authority who issued the disciplinary decision.

3. The chairperson will provide a draft of the decision to the employer and union appointed members of the panel, and then will issue the final decision after receiving their input.

4. By mutual consent, the parties may waive the appointment of their panel members, in which case the neutral arbitrator will hear the case and issue the decision.

5. Authority of the Arbitration Panel

A. The panel will:

- i. Have no authority to rule contrary to, add to, subtract from, or modify any of the provisions of this Agreement;
- ii. Be limited in their decision to the grievance issue(s) set forth in the original written grievance unless the parties agree to modify it; and

- iii. Not have the authority to order the Employer to modify their staffing levels.
- B. The panel will hear arguments on and decide issues of arbitrability before the first day of arbitration at a time convenient for the parties, through written briefs, immediately prior to hearing the case on its merits, or as part of the entire hearing and decision-making process. If the issue of arbitrability is argued prior to the first day of arbitration, it may be argued in writing or by telephone, at the discretion of the panel. Although the decision may be made orally, it will be put in writing and provided to the parties.
- C. The decision of the arbitration panel will be final and binding upon the Union, the Employer and the grievant.

13.4 Arbitration Costs

- A. Each party shall pay the fees and expenses of its appointed panel member. The expenses and fees of the neutral arbitrator and the cost (if any) of the hearing room will be borne by the non-prevailing party. In any decision where relief is only granted in part, the expenses and fees of the arbitrator will be shared equally by the parties.
- B. If the arbitration hearing is postponed or cancelled because of one party, that party will bear the cost of the postponement or cancellation. The costs of any mutually agreed upon postponements or cancellations will be shared equally by the parties.
- C. If either party desires a record of the arbitration, a court reporter may be used. If that party purchases a transcript, a copy will be provided to the arbitrator free of charge. If the other party desires a copy of the transcript, it will pay for half (1/2) of the costs of the fee for the court reporter, the original transcript and a copy. Should the Employer determine that the record of the arbitration is responsive to a request pursuant to RCW 42.56, it will provide a minimum of ten (10) days' notice to the Union and the grievant prior to release.
- D. Each party is responsible for the costs of its staff representatives, attorneys, and all other costs related to the development and presentation of their case. Every effort will be made to avoid the presentation of repetitive witnesses. The Union is responsible for paying any travel or per diem expenses for its witnesses, the grievant and the Union Representative.
- E. If, after the arbitrator issues the award, either party files a motion with the arbitrator for reconsideration, the moving party will bear the expenses and fees of the arbitrator.

13.5 Timelines

- A. Except for the filing of the initial grievance, all other grievance timelines are suspended during a legislative session or during committee assembly days, absent mutual written agreement of the parties.

- B. The timelines specified in this Article may only be modified by mutual written agreement, and only the Secretary of the Senate or the Office of State Legislative Labor Relations representative may grant an extension on behalf of the Employer. Failure by the Union to comply with timelines specified shall be treated as untimely and the grievance shall be deemed forfeited. At any step of the grievance process, if the Employer fails to respond in a timely fashion to a grievance, such failure shall be treated as a denial of the grievance and the Union may advance it to the next step.

ARTICLE 14 – WAGES & ECONOMIC TERMS (COALITION AGREEMENT)

14.1 General Terms
