

LLS COVID-19 PATIENT FINANCIAL AID PROGRAM

Providing Immediate Relief to Blood Cancer Patients

In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS), a global leader in the fight against cancer, along with valued partners, announced their commitment to help as many blood cancer patients as possible during this unprecedented crisis. The LLS COVID-19 Patient Financial Aid Program will begin immediately to provide $250 to eligible patients struggling with the economic hardship presented by the pandemic.

Blood cancer patients and caregivers can visit this page <https://www.lls.org/support/financial-support/covid-19-assistance-program> to access the application form for the LLS COVID-19 Patient Financial Aid Program.

PATIENT ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE:

There is not a financial burden level per patient for the LLS COVID-19 Patient Financial Aid program.

- Patients must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents and reside in the U.S. or U.S. territories
- Patients must have a confirmed diagnosis of blood cancer, be in active treatment, scheduled to begin treatment, or in follow up care, all attested to by the patient or care team member
- Patients do not need to have a Covid-19 diagnosis to qualify
- There is no Federal Poverty Level (FPL) eligibility requirement for this program
- Patients may be insured or uninsured

For more information please reach out to:

Kaye Skonieczny, VP Partner Relationship Management, 720-542-9410
Matt Russow, Manager Labor Union Relationship - 630-234-1448