ARTICLE 1 - UNION RECOGNITION

- 1.1 The State and the Employer recognize the Union as the exclusive bargaining representative for all non-supervisory classified employees as defined in the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) Decision Number RM-122. This Agreement does not cover any statutorily-excluded positions.
- 1.2 If the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) certifies the Union as the exclusive bargaining representative during the term of this Agreement for a bargaining unit covered under RCW 41.80, the terms of this Agreement will apply.

ARTICLE 2 - NON-DISCRIMINATION

- 2.1 Under this Agreement, discrimination against employees on the basis of religion, age, gender, sex, marital status, race, color, creed, national origin, political affiliation, military status, status as an honorably discharged veteran, a disabled veteran or Vietnam era veteran, sexual orientation, gender expression, gender identity, any real or perceived sensory, mental or physical disability, genetic information, being a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, citizenship, immigration status, or because of the participation or lack of participation in union activities is prohibited, and no unlawful harassment will be tolerate
- 2.2 Employees who feel they have witnessed or been the subjects of unlawful discrimination, harassment or hostile work environment are encouraged to bring such issues to the attention of their supervisor or the Human Resources Department, or to file a complaint in accordance with college/district policy. In cases where an employee files both a grievance and an internal complaint regarding the same alleged discrimination, harassment or a hostile work environment, the grievance will be suspended until the internal complaint process has been completed.
- 2.3 Both parties agree that nothing in this Agreement will prevent the implementation of an approved affirmative action plan.
- 2.4 Both parties agree that nothing in this Agreement will prevent an employee from filing a complaint with the Washington State Human Rights Commission, Office of Civil Rights, or the Equal Employment Opportunities Commission.
- 2.5 The Employer agrees to provide training and the Union agrees to support and encourage participation in training to positively accept the diversity that exists in the workplace and to understand as well as to prevent all forms of discrimination.

ARTICLE 3 - WORKPLACE BEHAVIOR

- 3.1 The Employer and the Union agree that all employees should work in an environment that fosters mutual respect and professionalism. The parties agree that inappropriate behavior in the workplace does not promote a college's business, employee well-being, or productivity. All employees are responsible for contributing to such an environment and are expected to treat others with courtesy and respect.
- 3.2 Inappropriate workplace behavior by employees, supervisors and/or managers will not be tolerated. If an employee and/or the employee's union representative believes the employee has been subjected to inappropriate behavior, the employee and/or the employee's representative is encouraged to report this behavior to the employee's supervisor and/or the Human Resources Department. Inappropriate workplace reports will be identified as such. The Employer will investigate the reported behavior and take appropriate action as necessary. The employee and/or union representative will be notified upon conclusion of the investigation. Upon request, the Employer will provide the employee and the union representative with a copy of the investigation report, pursuant to the Public Records Act, RCW 42.56.

- 3.3 The procedural aspects of this Article are subject to Step 2 of the grievance procedure only. No other grievance steps apply.

ARTICLE 4 - HIRING AND APPOINTMENTS

4.1 Filling Positions

- A. The Employer will determine when a position will be filled, the type of appointment to be used when filling the position, and the skills and abilities necessary to perform the duties of the specific position within a job classification. The Employer can fill a position on a full-time or part-time basis. When filling positions, the Employer will consider employees on the appropriate layoff list and the most senior candidate on the internal layoff list with the required skills and abilities will be appointed to the position. If there are no names on the internal layoff list, the Employer will consider internal promotional candidates and employees who are requesting a transfer or voluntary demotion prior to considering other candidates. In all cases consideration will be limited to employees who have the skills and abilities required for the position. Employees who have worked at the College in a related position for seven (7) years or more will be assumed to have met all minimum qualifications for the position applied for. Positions will be posted for at least ten (10) calendar days.
- B. An internal promotional candidate is a permanent employee who applies for appointment within the college to a class with a higher salary range maximum.
- C. A transfer candidate is a permanent employee who applies for appointment within the college to a position in the same class or to a different class with the same salary range maximum. The Employer will determine when a position will be filled, the type of appointment to be used when filling the position, and the skills and abilities necessary to perform the duties of the specific position within a job classification. The Employer can fill a position on a full-time or part-time basis. When filling positions, the Employer will consider employees on the appropriate layoff list and the most senior candidate on the internal layoff list with the required skills and abilities will be appointed to the position. If there are no names on the internal layoff list, the Employer will consider internal promotional candidates and employees who are requesting a transfer or voluntary demotion prior to considering other candidates. In all cases consideration will be limited to employees who have the skills and abilities required for the position. Positions will be posted for at least ten (10) calendar days.
- D. An internal promotional candidate is an employee who applies for appointment with the Employer to a class with a higher salary range maximum.

4.2 Types of Appointment

A. Regular Employment

The Employer may fill a position with a regular employment appointment for positions scheduled to work twelve (12) months per year.

B. Cyclic Year Employment

The Employer may fill a position with a cyclic year appointment for positions scheduled to work less than twelve (12) full months each year, due to known, recurring periods in the annual cycle when the position is not needed. At least fifteen (15) calendar days before the start of each annual cycle, incumbents of cyclic year positions will be informed, in writing, of their scheduled periods of leave without pay in the ensuing cycle. Such periods of leave without pay will not constitute a break in service.

C. Project Employment

1. The Employer may appoint employees into project positions for which employment is contingent upon state, federal, local, grant, or other special funding of specific and/or of time-limited duration. The Employer will notify the employees, in writing, of the expected end date of the project employment.
2. Employees who enter into project employment without previously attaining permanent status will serve a six (6) month probationary period. Employees will gain permanent status upon successful completion of their probationary period.

Project employees with permanent status will serve a six (6) month probationary period when they:

- a. Promote to another job classification within the project; or
- b. Transfer or voluntarily demote within the project to another job classification in which they have not attained permanent status.
3. The Employer may consider project employees with permanent status for transfer, voluntary demotion, or promotion to non-project positions. Project employees will serve a six (6) month probationary period upon transfer, voluntary demotion, or promotion to a non-project position.
4. When the Employer converts a project appointment into a permanent appointment, the employee will serve a six (6) month probationary period.
5. The layoff and recall rights of project employees will be in accordance with the provisions in Article 36, Layoff and Recall.

D. In-Training Employment

1. The Employer may designate specific positions, groups of positions, or all positions in a job classification or series as in-training. The Employer will document the training program, including a description and length of the program.
2. A candidate who is initially hired into an in-training position must successfully complete the job requirements of the appointment. The Employer may separate from classified service, any employee who has completed the probationary period for an in-training appointment but does not successfully complete the subsequent trial service periods required by the in-training program. Employees who are not successful may be separated at any time with prior written notice from the Employer.

3. An employee with permanent status who accepts an in-training appointment will serve a trial service period or periods, depending on the requirements of the in-training program. The Employer may revert an employee who does not successfully complete the trial service period or periods at any time. The employee's reversion right will be to the job classification that the employee held permanent status in prior to their in-training appointment, in accordance with Subsections 4.5.B.3 and 4.5.B.4 of this Article.
4. The in-training separation of an employee will not be subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29. Service period or periods, depending on the requirements of the in-training program. 5. The in-training separation of an employee will not be subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29.
6. A trial service period may be required for each level of the in-training appointment, or the entire in-training appointment may be designated as the trial service period. The Employer will determine the length of the trial service period or periods to be served by an employee in an in-training appointment.
7. If a trial service period is required for each level of the in-training appointment, the employee will attain permanent status upon successful completion of the training program at each level.
8. If the entire in-training program—meaning all levels within the in-training appointment—is designated as a trial service period, the employee will attain permanent status upon successful completion of the training requirements for the entire in-training program.

4.3 Employee Status

A. Classified Service

An employee will attain permanent status in the classified service upon completion of a probationary review period. For positions designated in-training, Subsection 4.2 D will govern when permanent status is attained.

B. Job Classification

An employee will attain permanent status in a job classification upon their successful completion of a probationary, trial service, or transition review period.

4.4 Referral of Applicants

The Employer will determine the number of applicants to be referred for consideration. All employees on the internal layoff list for the classification, and all promotional, transfer and voluntary demotion candidates, who have the skills and abilities to perform the duties of the position will be referred and will be considered by the Employer, prior to consideration of other candidates.

4.5 Review Periods

A. Probationary Period

1. All employees, including part-time or full-time, will serve a probationary period of six (6) months following their initial appointment to a permanent or project position. The Employer may extend the probationary period for an individual employee or for all employees in a class as long as the extension does not cause the total period to exceed twelve (12) months. Notification of the extension shall be provided to the employee(s) impacted, in writing, no less than two weeks prior to the completion of the original probationary completion date.
 2. The Employer may separate a probationary employee at any time during the probationary period, whether or not the Employer has evaluated the probationary employee. Probationary separation will not be subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29.
 3. The Employer will extend an employee's probationary period, on a day-for-a-day basis, for any day(s) that the employee is on leave without pay or shared leave, except for leave taken for military service.
 4. An employee who transfers or is promoted prior to completing their initial probationary period will serve a new probationary period. The length of the new probationary period will be in accordance with Subsection 4.5.A.1, unless adjusted by the Employer for time already served in probationary status. However, in no case will the total probationary period be less than six (6) months.
 5. Except for those employees in an in-training appointment, all other employees with permanent status who are promoted, or who voluntarily accept a transfer or demotion into a job classification for which they have not previously attained permanent status, will serve a probationary service period of six (6) consecutive months. The Employer may extend the probationary period for an individual employee or for all employees in a class as long as the extension does not cause the total probationary service period to exceed twelve (12) consecutive months. Employees in an in-training appointment will follow the provisions outlined in Subsection 4.2 D.
 6. An employee serving a probationary service period will have their probationary period extended, on a day-for-a-day basis, for any day(s) that the employee is on leave without pay or shared leave, except for leave taken for military service.
 7. With prior written notice by the Employer, all employees that have not successfully completed a probationary period may be offered an opportunity to revert to a position they previously held immediately prior to the promotion, transfer or voluntary demotion in the College that is:
 - a. Vacant and is within the employee's previously held job classification or
 - b. Vacant at or below the employee's previous salary range.
- In either case, the employee being reverted must have the skills and abilities required for the vacant position. If the employee has not attained permanent status in the job classification of the vacant position, the employee will be required to complete a probationary period.
8. An employee who has no reversion options or does not revert to the classification he or she held prior to the probationary period may request the Human Resources Department to place their name on the layoff list for positions in job classifications where he or she had previously attained permanent status.
 9. An employee serving a probationary period may voluntarily revert to their former position within ten (10) calendar days after the appointment, provided that the position has not been filled or an offer has not been made to an applicant. The Employer may consider requests after the ten (10) day period. After ten (10) days and at the discretion of the Employer, an employee serving a probationary service period may voluntarily revert at any time to a vacant position in the same college/district that is:

- a. Within the employee's previously held job classification; or
- b. At or below the employee's previous salary range.

If the employee has not attained permanent status in the job classification, the employee will be required to complete a probationary period.

The reversion of employees who are unsuccessful during their probationary service period is not subject to the grievance procedure in Article 30.

B. Transition Review Period

In accordance with Article 36, Layoff and Recall, the Employer may require an employee to complete a transition review period.

ARTICLE 5 - PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

5.1 Objective

The performance evaluation process is designed to provide supervisors and employees an opportunity to discuss and record performance planning, feedback and performance outcomes. Supervisors and employees will discuss how the employee's position aligns with the college's mission and goals and the Employer's job requirements.

5.2 Evaluation Process

A. Employee work performance will be evaluated during probationary, trial service and transition periods and at least annually thereafter, at a time that allows for adequate application of the process. Supervisors will meet with employees at the start of their review period to discuss performance expectations. Employees will receive copies of their performance expectations as well as notification of any modifications made during the review period. Permanent employees whose work performance is determined to be unsatisfactory must be notified in writing of the deficiency(ies). Unless the deficiency(ies) is (are) substantial, the employee shall be given the opportunity to correct the deficiency(ies) and demonstrate satisfactory performance before it is documented in an evaluation. Written notification will be given to a probationary or trial service employee whose work performance is determined to be unsatisfactory. If the probationary or trial service deficiency is substantial, the Employer may separate the probationary employee or revert the trial service employee at any time.

B. The Employer will use the Performance and Development Plan (PDP) developed by the Office of the State HR Director. A copy of the performance evaluation will be provided to the employee at the time of the review. The original performance evaluation forms, including the employee's comments, will be maintained in the employee's personnel file.

C. If a supervisor has had less than ninety (90) calendar days to observe the employee's performance, the employee may request a joint review with the previous supervisor (if still employed with the college). If the previous supervisor is no longer employed with the college, the employee may request a consultation with other managers with knowledge of the employee's performance.

D. The performance evaluation procedure may be grieved; however, the content of the evaluation is not subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29.

E. Performance evaluations can be used as supporting documentation for personnel actions. The performance evaluation itself will not be used to initiate personnel actions and will require additional documentation.

5.3 PDP Training

Training on performance evaluations will be provided to managers, supervisors and employees.

In accordance with the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) and state law, the Employer will determine whether a position is overtime-eligible or overtime-exempt. Employees will be informed of their status as such at the time of appointment. with starting and ending times as determined by the requirements of the position and the Employer.

B. Alternate Work Schedules

Workweeks and work shifts of different numbers of work hours may be established for overtime-eligible employees by the Employer in order to meet business and customer service needs, as long as the alternate work schedules meet federal and state requirements. Prior to assigning employees to alternate work schedules, the Employer will seek volunteers with the necessary skills and abilities who are qualified to perform such assignments. If more than one (1) volunteer has the necessary skills and abilities and is qualified to perform such assignments, seniority will be the determining factor in making the assignment.

Employees' workweeks and/or work schedules may be temporarily changed with prior notice from the Employer. 6.4 Overtime-Eligible Unpaid Meal Periods

Unpaid meal periods for employees working more than five (5) consecutive hours, if entitled, will be a minimum of thirty (30) minutes and will be scheduled as close to the middle of the work shift as possible, taking into account the Employer's work requirements and the employee's wishes.

6.5 Overtime-Eligible Unpaid Meal Periods Outside of the Normal Workday

The Employer and the Union agree that employees working three (3) or more hours longer than a normal workday will be allowed at least one (1) thirty (30) minute meal period.

Meal periods for employees on straight shifts do not require relief from duty.

6.7 Overtime-Eligible Rest Periods

Employees will be allowed rest periods of fifteen (15) minutes for each one half (1/2) shift of four (4) or more hours worked at or near the middle of each one half (1/2) shift of four (4) or more hours, taking into account the Employer's work requirements and the employee's wishes. Rest periods may not be used for late arrival or early departure from work and rest and meal periods will not be combined.

The Employer recognizes that there may be a time when an Employee requests, in advance, an exception to Article 6.4 and 6.7 regarding combining the use of their meal and rest periods to address exceptional circumstances. 10.3 Holiday Rules

The following rules apply to all holidays except the personal holiday:

Cyclic year employees will be entitled to the number of paid hours on a holiday on the same proportional basis that their appointment bears to a full-time appointment.
- E. Permanent and probationary employees will receive pay equivalent to the employee's work shift on the holiday.
- F. For operational convenience or necessity, the Employer, with prior notice, may switch groups of employees from an alternate work schedule to a regular work schedule during the week of a holiday.
- G. When a holiday falls on the employee's scheduled workday, that day will be considered the holiday.

The number of employees choosing a specific day off allows the College to continue its work efficiently and not incur overtime.

C. Personal holidays may not be carried over to the next calendar year except when an eligible employee's request to take their personal holiday has been requested in writing and has been denied or canceled. The employee will attempt to reschedule their personal holiday during the balance of the calendar year. Military Caregiver Leave will be provided to an eligible employee who is the spouse, child of any age, parent or next of kin of a covered service member to take up to twenty-six (26) workweeks of leave in a single twelve (12) month period to care for the covered service member or veteran who is suffering from a serious illness or injury in the line of duty.

During the single twelve (12) month period during which Military Caregiver Leave is taken the employee may only take a combined total of twenty-six (26) workweeks of leave for Military Caregiver Leave and leave taken for other FMLA qualifying reasons.

The single twelve (12) month period to care for a covered service member or veteran begins on the first day the employee takes leave for this reason and ends twelve (12) months later, regardless of the twelve (12) month period established for other types of FMLA leave.

C. Entitlement to family medical leave for the care of a newborn child or newly adopted or foster child ends twelve (12) months from the date of birth or the placement of the foster or adopted child. Pregnancy disability leave will be granted for the period of time an employee is sick or temporarily disabled because of pregnancy and/or childbirth and will be in addition to any leave granted under family medical leave or Washington state family leave laws.

D. The one thousand two hundred fifty (1,250) hour eligibility requirement noted above does not count vacation leave, sick leave, personal holidays, compensatory time off, or shared leave.

The family medical leave entitlement period will be a twelve (12) month period measured forward from the date an employee begins family medical leave. Each time an employee takes family medical leave during the twelve (12) month period, the leave will be subtracted from the twelve (12) workweeks of available leave. The Employer will respond in writing to family medical leave requests as soon as practicable but no later than seven (7) calendar days of receipt of a properly completed request.

15.2 The Employer will continue the employee's existing employer-paid health insurance benefits during the period of leave covered by family medical leave. The employee will be required to pay their share of health care premiums.

15.3 The Employer has the authority to designate absences that meet the criteria of the family medical leave. The use of any paid or unpaid leave (excluding leave for work-related illness or injury covered by workers' compensation and compensatory time) for a family medical leave qualifying event will run concurrently with, not in addition to, the use of family medical leave for that event. Any employee using paid leave during a family medical leave qualifying event must follow the notice and certification requirements relating to family medical leave usage in addition to any notice and certification requirements relating to the paid leave.

15.4 The Employer may require certification from the employee's, family members, or covered service member's health care provider for the purpose of qualifying for family medical leave.

15.5 Personal medical leave, serious health condition leave, or serious injury or illness leave covered by family medical leave may be taken intermittently when certified as medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the Employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

15.6 Upon returning to work after the employee's own family medical leave qualifying illness, the employee will be required to provide a fitness for duty certificate from a health care provider.

15.7 The employee will provide the Employer with not less than thirty (30) days' notice before family medical leave is to begin. If the need for the leave is unforeseeable thirty (30) days in advance, then the employee will provide such notice as is reasonable and practicable.

15.8 An employee returning from family medical leave will have return rights in accordance with FMLA and WFLA.

15.9 Definitions used in this Article will be in accordance with the FMLA and WFLA. The parties recognize that the Department of Labor is working on further defining the amendments to FMLA. The Employer and the employees will comply with existing and any adopted federal FMLA regulations and/or interpretations.

- B. When traveling away from home overnight outside of regular working hours or outside of corresponding hours on non-working days when the employee is traveling on an airplane, train, boat, or automobile.

ARTICLE 26 - USE OF ELECTRONIC DEVICES AND EQUIPMENT

26.1 The Employer is responsible for determining and providing the resources, tools, and equipment necessary to do the job. Equipment provided by the Employer for the purpose of conducting business is to be used primarily for such purposes.

26.2 De minimis personal use of electronic office equipment is permitted, provided that such use does not interfere with business operations or job performance.

26.3 Employees may make use of their personal electronic devices during work time, provided that such use does not interfere with business operations or job performance.

ARTICLE 27 - DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

27.1 Representation

- A. Upon request, an employee has the right to a union representative at an investigatory interview called by the Employer, if the employee reasonably believes discipline could result. If the requested representative is not reasonably available, the employee will select another representative who is available.
- B. Employees seeking representation are responsible for contacting their representative.
- C. The role of the representative is to provide assistance and counsel to the employee, rather than serve as an adversary to the investigator. The exercise of rights in this Article will not interfere with the Employer's right to conduct the investigation.

27.2 Discipline

Employers will not discipline any permanent employee without just cause. Discipline includes oral and written reprimands, reductions in pay, suspensions, demotions, and discharges. Oral reprimands will be identified as such. When disciplining an employee, the Employer will make a reasonable effort to protect the privacy of the employee.

- A. The Employer has the authority to impose discipline, which is then subject to the grievance procedure set forth in Article 29. Oral and written reprimands, however, may only be processed through Step 2 of the grievance procedure.
- B. The Employer will provide an employee with fifteen (15) calendar days' written notice prior to the effective date of a reduction in pay or demotion.
- C. The Employer will normally provide an employee with seven (7) calendar days written notice prior to the effective date of a discharge. If the Employer fails to provide seven (7) calendar days notice, the discharge will stand and the employee will be entitled to payment of salary for time the employee would otherwise have been scheduled to work had seven (7) calendar days notice been given.

However, the Employer may discharge an employee immediately without pay in lieu of the seven (7) calendar days notice period if, in the Employer's determination, the continued employment of the employee during the notice period would jeopardize the good of the college.

27.3 Investigations

- A. All institution policies regarding investigatory procedures related to alleged employee misconduct, are superseded. The Employer has the authority to determine the method of conducting investigations.
- B. Both parties agree that timely resolution of investigations of alleged employee misconduct is critical to maintaining a positive and productive work environment. Investigations generally will be concluded within sixty (60) calendar days. When the Employer is unable to complete the investigation with the sixty (60) calendar days, the Employer will notify the employee of the anticipated date of completion.
- C. Employees are required to fully and truthfully answer all questions during an investigation.
- D. Employees will not be prohibited from contacting their union representative.
- E. The Employer will provide the employee under investigation with a status update of the investigation progress every thirty (30) days until the investigation is complete.

27.4 Off-Duty Conduct

The off-duty activities of an employee may be grounds for disciplinary action if said activities are a conflict of interest as set forth in RCW 42.52, are detrimental to the employee's work performance or the program of the Employer, or otherwise constitutes just cause. Employees will report all arrests and any court-imposed sanctions or conditions that affect their ability to perform assigned duties to the Employer within twenty-four (24) hours or prior to their scheduled work shift, whichever occurs first.

27.5 Notice to Employees

When the Employer is contemplating disciplinary action such as reduction in pay, suspension, demotion, and/or discharge against an employee, the Employer will notify the employee and the Union. Such notice will include the charges against the employee, an explanation of the evidence which forms the basis for the charge, and the action contemplated. The employee has the right to give reasons orally or in writing why the action should not be taken.

27.6 Probationary Employees

Nothing in this Article limits the Employer's right to separate a probationary employee during their probationary review period.

27.7 Removal of Documents

- A. Written reprimands will be removed from an employee's personnel file after three (3) years if:
 - 1. Circumstances do not warrant a longer retention period;
 - 2. There has been no subsequent discipline; and
 - 3. The employee submits a written request for its removal. If the request is denied, the Employer will notify the employee in writing with the specific reasons for the denial.
- B. Records of disciplinary actions involving reductions in pay, suspension, or demotions, and written reprimands not removed after three (3) years will be removed after five (5) years if:
 - 1. Circumstances do not warrant a longer retention period;

2. There has been no subsequent discipline; and

3. The employee submits a written request for its removal. If the request is denied, the Employer will notify the employee in writing with the specific reasons for the denial.

C. Nothing in this Section will prevent the Employer from agreeing to an earlier removal date, unless to do so would violate RCW 41.06.450.

D. References in a performance evaluation to a disciplinary document removed pursuant to Subsections 27.7A or B shall be redacted from the performance evaluation at the same time the disciplinary document is removed from the personnel file.

ARTICLE 28 - RESIGNATION AND ABANDONMENT

28.1 Voluntary Resignation

The Employer may permit an employee to withdraw their resignation at any time prior to the effective date.

28.2 Unauthorized Absence/Abandonment

When an employee has been absent without authorized leave and has failed to contact the Employer for a period of three (3) consecutive days, the employee is presumed to have resigned from their position. The Employer will make at least two (2) attempts during their regular shift to contact the employee to determine the cause of the absence. Such attempts will include calling the employee at their contact phone number and any emergency contacts on file with the Employer.

28.3 Notice of Separation

When an employee's resignation is presumed in accordance with Section 28.2, the Employer will separate the employee by sending a separation notice to the employee by certified mail to the last known address of the employee. Such notice will include information regarding eligibility for continuation of medical benefits.

28.4 Petition for Reinstatement

An employee who has received a separation notice in accordance with Section 28.3 may petition the Employer in writing to consider reinstatement. The employee must provide proof that the absence was involuntary or unavoidable. The petition must be received by the Employer or postmarked within five (5) calendar days after the separation notice was deposited in the United States mail.

Denial of a petition for reinstatement pursuant to Section 28.4 is grievable. The grievance may not be based on information other than that shared with the Employer at the time of the petition for reinstatement.

ARTICLE 29 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

29.1 Terms and Requirements

The Union and the Employer agree that it is in the best interest of all parties to resolve disputes at the earliest opportunity and at the lowest level. The Union and the Employer encourage problem resolution between employees and management and are committed to assisting in resolution of disputes as soon as possible. In the event a dispute is not resolved in an informal manner, this Article provides a formal process for problem resolution.

A. Grievance Definition

A grievance is an allegation by an employee or a group of employees that there has been a violation, misapplication, or misinterpretation of this Agreement, which occurred during the term of this Agreement. The term "grievant" as used in this Article includes the term "grievants."

B. Filing a Grievance

Grievances may be filed by the Union on behalf of an employee or on behalf of a group of employees. If the Union does so, it will set forth the name of the employee or the names of the group of employees.

C. Computation of Time

The time limits in this Article must be strictly adhered to unless mutually modified in writing. Days are calendar days, and will be counted by excluding the first day and including the last day of timelines. When the last day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the last day will be the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or holiday. Transmittal of grievances, appeals and responses will be in writing. Transmittal of grievances, appeals, and responses may be filed by fax or email. Timelines will apply to the date of receipt, not the date of postmarking.

D. Failure to Meet Timelines

Failure by the Union to comply with the timelines will result in the automatic withdrawal of the grievance. Failure by the Employer to comply with the timelines will entitle the Union to move the grievance to the next step of the procedure.

E. Contents

The written grievance must include the following information or it will not be processed:

1. The date of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance or the date the grievant knew or could reasonably have known of the occurrence;
2. The nature of the grievance;
3. The facts upon which it is based;
4. The specific Article and Section of the Agreement violated;
5. The specific remedy requested;
6. The steps taken to informally resolve the grievance;
7. The name of the grievant(s) and the name and signature of the union representative.

F. Modifications

No newly alleged violations may be made after the initial written grievance is filed, except by written mutual agreement.

G. Resolution

If the Employer provides the requested remedy or a mutually agreed-upon alternative, the grievance will be considered resolved and may not be moved to the next step.

H. Withdrawal

A grievance may be withdrawn at any time.

I. Resubmission

If resolved or withdrawn, a grievance cannot be resubmitted.

J. Pay

Shop stewards will be provided a reasonable amount of time during their normal working hours to investigate and process grievances through Step 2. Grievants and shop stewards will not lose pay for attending informal dispute resolution meetings, grievance meetings, alternative dispute resolution sessions, and arbitration hearings held during their scheduled work time. Grievants will not be paid for informal dispute resolution meetings, grievance meetings, alternative dispute resolution sessions, and arbitration hearings held during their off-duty time.

K. Group Grievances

No more than five (5) grievants will be permitted to attend a single grievance meeting.

L. Consolidation

By mutual agreement, either the Employer or the Union may consolidate grievances arising out of the same set of facts.

M. Bypass

Any of the steps in this procedure may be bypassed with mutual written consent of the parties involved at the time the bypass is sought.

N. Discipline

Disciplinary grievances will be initiated at the level at which the disputed action was taken.

O. Grievance Files

Written grievances and responses will be maintained separately from the personnel files of the employees.

P. Alternative Resolution Methods

Any time during the grievance process, by mutual consent, the parties may use alternative methods to resolve the dispute. If the parties agree to use alternative methods, the time frames in this Article are suspended. If the selected alternative method does not result in a resolution, the Union may return to the grievance process and the time frames resume. The cost of alternative resolution methods, if any, will be shared equally by the parties.

29.2 Filing and Processing

A. Filing

A grievance must be filed within thirty (30) days of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance, or the date the grievant knew or could reasonably have known of the occurrence.

B. Processing

Step 1: Human Resources Department Designee

If the issue is not resolved informally, the Union may present a written grievance to the Human Resources Department, within the thirty (30) day period described above. The Human Resources Department will designate who will hear the grievance at Step 1. The designee will meet in person or confer by telephone with a shop steward and/or staff representative, and the grievant within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of the grievance, and will respond in writing to the Union within twenty-one (21) days after the meeting.

Step 2: President or Designee

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 1, the Union may move to the next step by filing it with the Human Resources Department, within fifteen (15) days of the Union's receipt of the Step 1 decision. The President or designee will meet in person or confer by telephone with a shop steward or staff representative and the grievant within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of the appeal, and will respond in writing to the Union within twenty-one (21) days after the meeting.

Step 3: Mediation or Pre-Arbitration Review Meetings (PARM)

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 2, the Union may file a request for mediation with the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) in accordance with WAC 391-55-020, with a copy to the Human Resources Department within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Step 2 decision. In addition to all other filing requirements, the request must include a copy of the grievance and all previous responses.

The proceedings of any mediation will not be reported or recorded in any manner, except for written agreements reached by the parties during the course of the mediation. Unless they are independently admissible, statements made by or to the mediator, or by or to any party or other participant in the mediation may not be:

1. Later introduced as evidence;
2. Made known to an arbitrator or hearings examiner at a hearing; and/or
3. Construed for any purpose as an admission against interest.

Step 4: Arbitration

If the matter is not resolved at mediation, the Union may file a demand for arbitration. The demand to arbitrate the dispute must be filed with the American Arbitration Association (AAA) within fifteen (15) days of the mediation session. Simultaneous with filing, copies of the demand for arbitration will be provided to the Human Resources Department.

C. Selecting an Arbitrator

The parties will select an arbitrator by mutual agreement or by alternately striking names supplied by the AAA, and will follow the Labor Arbitration Rules of the AAA unless they agree otherwise in writing.

D. Authority of the Arbitrator

1. The arbitrator will:
 - a. Have no authority to add to, subtract from, or modify any of the provisions of this Agreement;
 - b. Be limited in their decision to the grievance issue(s) set forth in the original written grievance unless the parties agree to modify it;

- c. Not make any award that provides an employee with compensation greater than would have resulted had there been no violation of this Agreement; and
- d. Not have the authority to order the Employer to modify their staffing levels or to direct staff to work overtime.

2. The arbitrator will hear arguments on and decide issues of arbitrability before the first day of arbitration at a time convenient for the parties, immediately prior to hearing the case on its merits, or as part of the entire hearing and decision-making process. If the issue of arbitrability is argued prior to the first day of arbitration, it may be argued in writing or by telephone, at the discretion of the arbitrator. Although the decision may be made orally, it will be put in writing and provided to the parties.

3. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the Union, the Employer and the grievant.

E. Arbitration Costs

1. The expenses and fees of the arbitrator, and the cost (if any) of the hearing room will be shared equally by the parties.

2. If the arbitration hearing is postponed or canceled because of one party, that party will bear the cost of the postponement or cancellation. The costs of any mutually agreed upon postponements or cancellations will be shared equally by the parties.

3. If either party desires a record of the arbitration, a court reporter may be used. If that party purchases a transcript, a copy will be provided to the arbitrator, free of charge. If the other party desires a copy of the transcript, it will pay for one half (1/2) of the costs of the fee for the court reporter, the original transcript and a copy.

4. Each party is responsible for the costs of its attorneys, staff representatives, and all other costs related to the development and presentation of their case. When an employee is subpoenaed as a witness on behalf of the Union in an arbitration case, the employee may appear without loss of pay if he or she appears during their work time. Every effort will be made to avoid the presentation of repetitive witnesses. The Union is responsible for paying any travel or per diem expenses for its witnesses, the grievant and the shop steward.

5. If, after the arbitrator issues their award, either party files a motion with the arbitrator for reconsideration, the moving party will bear the additional expenses of the arbitrator.

ARTICLE 30 - GENERAL CONDITIONS AND BENEFITS

30.1 The Employer will provide employee lounge facilities apart from work areas.

30.2 The Employer's written Board of Trustee or administrative policies pertaining to employees represented by the Union will be made available to Union staff representatives, shop stewards and employees. The Employer will provide advance notice to the Union of any substantive change to Board of Trustee or administrative policy.

ARTICLE 31 - LEGAL LIABILITY

31.1 Employee Liability

If an employee becomes a defendant in a civil liability suit arising out of actions taken or not taken in the course of their employment for the state, he or she has the right to request representation and indemnification through their Employer according to RCW 4.92.

31.2 Personal Property Reimbursement

An employee has the right to seek reimbursement for personal property items damaged in the proper performance of their duties, and the Employer will process the request in accordance with RCW 4.92.100. Employees are encouraged to take precautions to protect personal property/equipment.

ARTICLE 32 - PERSONNEL FILES

32.1 The Employer will maintain an official personnel file for each employee, showing a record of employment and such other information required for business and legal purposes. The Employer will determine the location of the personnel file and will notify the Union if someone other than the Employer's Human Resource Director is responsible for the personnel file.

32.2 Health and medical information obtained by the Employer will be maintained in a separate, confidential file.

The Employer will not require employees to provide information about the health or medical conditions of the employee or the employee's family unless such information is related to the performance of duties within the scope of employment, fitness to hold the employee's position or the providing of benefits requested by the employee.

32.3 An employee and/or their representative may arrange to examine the employee's personnel file, medical file and/or the file kept by the employee's supervisor during regular business hours upon reasonable notice. Written authorization from the employee is required before any representative of the employee will be granted access to the personnel file, medical file and/or the file kept by the employee's supervisor. The Employer may charge a reasonable fee for copying any materials beyond the first copy requested by the employee or their representative.

32.4 Employees will be provided a copy of all adverse material placed in the official personnel file at the time it is placed in the file. The employee or their representative may not remove any contents from the file; however, an employee may provide a written rebuttal or refuting documentation to any information in the file that he or she considers objectionable. The parties agree that it is a good practice for an employee to be provided with copies of letters of appreciation and commendation addressed to the Employer. An employee may insert a reasonable amount of job-related material in their personnel file that reflects favorably on their job performance.

32.5 Information in the personnel files will be retained only as long as it has a reasonable bearing on the employee's job performance or upon the efficient and effective management of the District. Adverse material related to alleged employee misconduct that is determined to be false, and all information related to incidents of which the employee has been fully exonerated of wrong doing, will be promptly removed from the personnel file and/or supervisory file. Such information will be maintained in an administrative file, separate and apart from the personnel file and will not be released unless required by judicial order or by applicable laws governing disclosure of public documents.

32.6 When documents in an employee's personnel file, supervisory file and/or administrative file are the subject of public disclosure request, subpoena or legal discovery the Employer will provide the employee and the Union with a copy of the request at least seven (7) calendar days in advance of the intended release date, unless otherwise required by law.

32.7 The Employer will not release personal information about an employee except as is necessary, or as the law requires.

32.8 Supervisors may keep working files of documentation relevant to employee performance. The previous year's job performance documentation will be removed from the supervisor's working file following the completion of a performance evaluation, unless related to issues of an ongoing nature. Upon request, the supervisor will inform the employee if documentation has been retained.

Supervisors who keep employee working files will maintain the files in a manner that protects against unauthorized access or casual observation and in accordance with other governing laws and rules. Employees may view these files per Section 32.3 above, but may not append refutations nor rebuttals to the file.

ARTICLE 33 LIGHT DUTY, REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION AND DISABILITY SEPARATION

33.1 The Employer and the Union will comply with all relevant federal and state laws, and regulations regarding the employment of persons with disabilities and will provide reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities. Reasonable accommodation may include job restructuring, or modification of the work environment, methods or equipment that make it possible for an employee with a disability to perform the essential functions of a position, or that enables the employee to enjoy the benefits and privileges of employment as are enjoyed by other similarly situated employees without a disability. Reasonable accommodation will be implemented as long as it is medically necessary and does not impose an undue hardship or a direct threat.

33.2 Essential functions means the primary job tasks and responsibilities of a position that are fundamental and necessary to accomplish the required outcomes of the position. The term “essential functions” does not include the marginal functions of the position that are incidental to the performance of the primary job functions.

33.3 An employee who believes that he or she suffers a disability and requires a reasonable accommodation to perform the essential functions of their position may request such an accommodation by submitting a request to the Employer. The Employer will make a good faith effort to provide the employee requesting accommodation with an alternate assignment during the accommodation process, as necessary.

33.4 Employees requesting accommodation must cooperate with the Employer in discussing the need for and possible form of any accommodation. The Employer and the employee will enter into an interactive process to discuss the job-related limitations, possible accommodation options, including the employee’s preferences, and the potential effectiveness of each option.

33.5 The Employer may require supporting medical documentation and may require the employee to obtain a second medical opinion at Employer expense. Medical information disclosed to the Employer will be kept confidential.

33.6 The Employer will determine whether an employee is eligible for a reasonable accommodation and the accommodation to be provided. If more than one (1) option for reasonable accommodation exists, the Employer will decide which option to provide the employee, taking into consideration the employee’s preference. If a reasonable accommodation cannot be provided, the Employer will provide the employee with written notification of such decision.

33.7 An employee with permanent status may be separated from service when the Employer determines that the employee is unable to perform the essential functions of the employee’s position due to a mental, sensory, or physical disability, which cannot be reasonably accommodated. Determinations of disability may be made by the Employer based on an employee’s written request for disability separation or after obtaining a written statement from a licensed health care professional. The Employer can require an employee to obtain an independent medical examination at Employer expense, from a licensed health care professional of the Employer’s choice. Evidence may be requested from the licensed health care professional regarding the employee’s limitations.

33.8 When the Employer has medical documentation of the employee’s disability, has met its obligation to explore accommodation options, including placement in any vacant funded position at the same or lower level of pay and benefits for which the employee qualifies, and has determined that the employee cannot be reasonably accommodated, or the employee requests separation due to disability, the Employer may separate the employee with five (5) calendar days notice. The Employer will provide the Union with a copy of any disability separation letters.

33.9 The Employer will inform the employee in writing of the option to apply to return to employment prior to their separation due to disability. The Employer will provide assistance to individuals seeking reemployment under this Article for two (2) years. If reemployed, upon successful completion of the employee's probationary period, the time between separation and reemployment will be treated as leave without pay and will not be considered a break in service.

33.10 A disability separation is not a disciplinary action. An employee who has been separated due to disability may grieve their disability separation only up to the final internal step of the grievance procedure. Disability separation at the employee's request is not subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29.

33.11 Light duty may be considered for employees who are temporarily unable to perform the essential duties of their position.

ARTICLE 34 - SENIORITY

34.1 Definition

A. Seniority for employees will be defined as the employee's length of unbroken classified service classified service counted as the number of hours in paid status at the College. All time spent in leave without pay status will be deducted from the calculation of seniority, except when the leave without pay is taken for: Leave without pay of fifteen (15) consecutive calendar days or less will not affect an employee's seniority. When an employee is on leave without pay for more than fifteen (15) consecutive calendar days, the employee's seniority will not be affected when the leave without pay is for:

1. Military leave;
2. Compensable work-related injury or illness leave;
3. Governmental service leave;
4. Reducing the effects of layoff;
5. Time between disability separation and post-reemployment completion of probation;
6. Formal contract negotiations in accordance with RCW 41.80; and/or
7. Time spent on a temporary layoff or when an employee's work hours are reduced in accordance with Article 35.5, Temporary Layoff;
8. Time covered under the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA).

B. For the purposes of layoffs, a maximum of five (5) years' credit will be added to the seniority of permanent employees who are veterans or to their surviving spouses or surviving state registered domestic partners as defined by RCWs 26.60.020 and 26.60.030, as provided for in RCW 41.06.133.

C. Employees who are separated from state service due to layoff and are reemployed within two (2) years of their separation date will not be considered to have a break in service. The time the employee is on the layoff list will be treated as leave without pay.

34.2 Ties

If two (2) or more employees have the same seniority, ties will be broken in the following order:

1. Longest continuous time within their current job classification;

2. Longest continuous time with the institution; and
3. By lot.

34.3 Seniority List

The Employer will prepare and post a seniority list annually. The list will contain each employee's name, job classification and the total amount of seniority. Employees will have fourteen (14) calendar days in which to appeal their seniority to their Human Resources Department, after which time the seniority list will be presumed correct. A copy of the seniority list will be provided to the Union at the time of posting.

ARTICLE 35 - LAYOFF AND RECALL

35.1 A. The Employer will determine the basis for, extent, effective date and the length of layoffs in accordance with the provisions of this Article. A layoff is an employer-initiated action that results in:

1. Separation from service;
2. Employment in a class with a lower salary range maximum;
3. Reduction in the work year; or
4. Reduction in the number of work hours.

B. When it is determined that layoffs, other than a temporary layoff, will occur within a layoff unit, the Employer will provide the Union with:

1. As much advance notice as possible, but not less than thirty (30) days' written notice (this time period may run concurrent with the notice period provided by the Employer to the employee);
2. An opportunity to meet with affected employees prior to the implementation of the layoff; and
3. An invitation to meet under the provisions of the Labor/Management Communication Committee article of this Agreement.

C. Upon the Union's request, the Employer will discuss impacts to the bargaining unit. The discussion will not serve to delay the onset of a layoff.

D. The Employer will explore options including the reduction of hourly employees.

E. For purposes of this Article, days are calendar days, and will be counted by excluding the first day and including the last day of timeliness. When the last day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the last day will be the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or holiday.

35.2 Basis for Layoff

A. The reasons for layoff include the following:

1. Lack of funds;
2. Lack of work; or
3. Organizational change.

B. Examples of layoff actions due to lack of work may include, but are not limited to:

1. Termination of a project or special employment;
2. Availability of fewer positions than there are employees entitled to such positions;
3. Employee's ineligibility to continue in a position following its reallocation to a class with a higher salary range maximum; or
4. Employee's ineligibility to continue, or choice not to continue, in a position following its reallocation to a class with a lower salary range maximum.

35.3 Voluntary Layoff, Leave of Absence or Reduction in Hours

The Employer may allow an employee to volunteer to be laid off, take an unpaid leave of absence or reduce their hours of work in order to reduce layoffs. If it is necessary to limit the number of employees in an institution on unpaid leave at the same time, the Employer will determine who will be granted a leave of absence and/or reduction in hours based upon staffing needs. Employees who volunteer to be laid off may request to have their names placed on the appropriate layoff list for the job classifications in which they held permanent status, regardless of a break in service with the current Employer.

35.4 Probationary Employees

Employees with permanent status will not be separated from the College through a layoff action without first being offered positions they have the skills and abilities to perform within their current job classification within the layoff unit currently held by probationary employees. Probationary employees will be separated from employment before permanent employees.

35.5 Temporary Layoff

A. Temporary Reduction in Work Hours

The Employer may temporarily reduce the work hours of an employee to no less than twenty (20) hours per week due to an unanticipated loss of funding, revenue shortfall, lack of work, shortage of material or equipment, or other unexpected or unusual reasons. Employees will normally receive seven (7) days notice of a temporary reduction in hours.

B. Temporary Layoff

The Employer may temporarily layoff an employee for up to ninety (90) days due to an unanticipated loss of funding, revenue shortfall, lack of work, shortage of material or equipment, or other unexpected or unusual reasons. An employee will normally receive seven (7) days notice of a temporary layoff.

C. The notification will specify the nature and duration of the temporary layoff.

D. An employee who is temporarily laid off will not be entitled to:

1. Be paid any leave balance; except if the layoff is not due to loss of funding or revenue shortfall, upon request, an employee will be paid for accrued vacation leave up to the equivalent of their regular work schedule for the duration of the layoff.
2. Bump to any other position; or
3. Be placed on a layoff list.

35.6 Layoff Units

- A. A layoff unit is defined as the entity or administrative/organizational unit within each institution used for determining the available options for employees who are being laid off.
- B. The layoff unit(s) for Employer covered by this Agreement are as follows:
1. Community Access/Supported Employment Programs
 2. Continuing Education Programs
 3. Project Employment
 4. All Other Classified Employees
- C. Employees who are employed in the Continuing Education Programs prior to July 1, 2017 are considered “grandfathered” and retain their layoff rights in the “All Other Classified Employees” layoff unit.

35.7 Options within the Layoff Unit

- A. Permanent employees will be laid off in accordance with seniority, as defined in Article 34, Seniority, and the skills and abilities of the employee within the layoff unit. The Employer will determine if the employee possesses the required skills and abilities for the position and the comparability of the position. Comparability is defined as having the same FTE appointment. The average number of hours worked in a year for 1.0 FTE equals two thousand eighty-eight (2088) hours. For this Section, a less than comparable position is defined as not less than eighty percent (80%) of the employee’s FTE appointment. The Employer may require updated information from the employee regarding their skills and abilities. Vacant positions will be offered prior to filled positions. Employees being laid off will be provided one (1) option within the layoff unit:
1. A comparable funded vacant position for which the employee has the skills and abilities, within their current job classification.
 2. A comparable funded filled position held by the least senior employee for which the employee has the skills and abilities, within their current permanent job classification.
 3. A less than comparable funded vacant position for which the employee has the skills and abilities and is within their current job classification.
 4. A less than comparable funded filled position for which the employee has the skills and abilities and is within their current permanent classification.
 5. A comparable funded vacant position for which the employee has the skills and abilities, at the same or lower salary range as their current permanent position, within a job classification in which the employee has held permanent status.
 6. A comparable funded filled position held by the least senior employee for which the employee has the skills and abilities, at the same or lower salary range as their current permanent position, within a job classification in which the employee has held permanent status.
- B. The layoff unit option will be determined, as specified above, in descending order of salary range and one progressively lower level at a time.

C. If a job classification in which an employee has previously held status has been abolished or revised, a crosswalk to the class series will be used to identify layoff options at the same or lower salary range as their current permanent position.

D. An employee in a position that is reduced in work year or work hours will have the choice of staying in the reduced position.

35.8 Institution-wide Options

A. In addition to the layoff unit option offered in Section 35.7 above, permanent employees being laid off will be offered:

1. Up to three (3) institution-wide comparable funded vacant positions within their district provided they meet the skills and abilities required of the position(s) and the positions offered are at the same or lower salary range as the position from which the employee is currently being laid off.
2. If there are no comparable vacant positions, the Employer will offer less than comparable funded vacant positions.
3. The Employer will determine if the employee possesses the required skills and abilities for the position.

35.9 Multi-Employee Layoffs

For multi-employee layoffs, more than one (1) employee may be offered the same funded vacant position. In this case, the most senior employee with the skills and abilities who accepts the position will be appointed.

35.10 Notification to Permanent Employees

A. Except for temporary reduction in work hours and temporary layoffs as provided in Section 35.5, permanent employees will receive written notice at least thirty (30) days before the effective layoff date. Notice will be provided by certified mail or personal delivery. The notice will include:

1. The basis for the layoff;
2. The effective date of the layoff;
3. The employee's layoff unit option and any institution-wide options;
4. The specific layoff lists for which the employee is entitled to placement;
5. The date by when an employee must select a layoff option; and
6. The process, including timelines, by which the employee is entitled to challenge the layoff..

B. The Union will be provided with a copy of the notice on the same day as the employee.

C. Except for temporary reduction in work hours and temporary layoffs as provided in Section 35.5, if the Employer fails to provide thirty (30) days' notice, the employee will be paid their salary for the days that he or she would have worked had full notice been given.

D. Employees will be provided seven (7) days to accept or decline, in writing, any option provided to them. This time period will run concurrent with the thirty (30) days' notice of layoff provided by the Employer to the employee.

35.11 Salary

Employees appointed to a position as a result of a layoff action will have their salary determined as follows:

A. Current Salary Level

An employee who accepts another position within their current salary range will retain their current salary.

B. Lower Salary Level

An employee who accepts a position with a lower salary range will be paid an amount equal to their current salary, provided it is within the salary range of the new position. In those cases where the employee's current salary exceeds the maximum amount of the salary range for the new position, the employee will be compensated at the maximum salary of the new salary range.

C. Appointment from a Layoff List

1. Employees who are appointed from a layoff list to a position with the same salary range from which they were laid off will be paid the amount for which they were compensated when laid off plus any across the board adjustments, including salary survey adjustments, that occurred during the time they were laid off.

2. Employees who are appointed from a layoff list to a position with a lower salary range than the position from which they were laid off will be paid an amount equal to the salary they were receiving at the time they were laid off provided it is within the salary range of the new position. In those cases where the employee's prior salary exceeds the maximum amount of the salary range for the new position, the employee will be compensated at the maximum salary of the new salary range.

35.12 Transition Review Period

A. The Employer will require an employee to complete a six (6) month transition review period when the employee accepts a layoff option to a job classification in which he or she has not held permanent status or has been appointed into a new position from a layoff list. The Employer may extend the transition review period for an individual employee as long as the extension does not cause the total period to exceed twelve (12) months.

B. The Employer will have the authority to shorten an employee's transition review period. Employees will receive a permanent appointment to the position upon successful completion of the transition review period.

C. The Employer may separate an employee or an employee may voluntarily separate at any time during the transition review period. Upon separation, and at the employee's request, the employee's name will be placed on or returned to the appropriate layoff list. The employee will remain on the list until such time as their eligibility expires or he or she has been rehired. Separation during the transition review period will not be subject to the grievance procedure in Article 29.

D. An employee may voluntarily separate a maximum of two (2) times as a result of a single layoff action.

35.13 Recall

A. The Employer will maintain a layoff list for each job classification. Permanent employees who are laid off may have their name placed on the register for the job classification from which they were laid off or bumped. Additionally, employees may request to have their name placed on the layoff list(s) for other job classifications in which they have held permanent status at the same or lower salary ranges, regardless of a break in service with the current Employer. However, employees will not have their names placed on a layoff list if they were demoted for cause from the classifications. An employee's name will remain on the layoff lists for two (2) years from the effective date of their layoff.

If the college Human Resources Department receives a written request from the employee within thirty (30) days prior to the end of the second year on a layoff list, the employee's name will remain on the layoff list for an additional year, for a total of three (3) years from the effective date of their layoff. This provision will end with the expiration of the 2017-2019 Agreement.

B. When a vacancy occurs within an institution and where there are names on a layoff list for that classification, the Employer will fill the position with the most senior employee who has the required skills and abilities to perform the duties of the position to be filled in accordance with Article 4, Hiring and Appointments.

C. Removal from Layoff Lists

When an employee is appointed from a layoff list, the employee's name will be removed from that job classification's layoff list, as well as from all other layoff lists at the same or lower salary range as the position to which he or she was appointed. An employee will be removed from the appropriate job classification layoff list after he or she waives the appointment to a position for that job classification three (3) times. In addition, an employee will have their name removed from all layoff lists upon retirement, resignation or discharge from the Employer.

35.14 Project Employment

B. Permanent classified employees who left regular classified positions to accept project employment without a break in service have layoff rights within the institution in which they held permanent classified status. The employee's return rights will be to the job classification they last held permanent status in prior to accepting project employment using the procedures in Sections 35.8 and 35.9 above.
